

AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

ACT Against Violence Program

National Workshop

October 9-11, 2008

Register NOW!

Location: APA Headquarters,
Washington, DC

Registration Fee: $300, includes training material kit and lunches

CE Credits: Approved by APA to offer 24 hours of CE for psychologists

Deadline for Registration: September 1st

Who should attend?

Those who work with families and have organizational support to implement a program. Those who work as staff or consultants with agencies and organizations that provide educational, social, and/or mental health services to families and children.

Workshop content

Child development; roots & consequences of violence in children's lives; prevention skills such as anger management, social problem solving, positive discipline, media literacy; strategies for program implementation, evaluation, marketing and fundraising.

ACT is a research-based program for professionals who want to help families and communities protect children and youth from violence!

For more information and to request the registration form, contact Julia Silva, Director, APA Violence Prevention Office, at (202) 336-5817; or by email at jsilva@apa.org.

Visit our ACT website at www.actagainstvience.org

